S. T. Morgan says—On Friday, at the request of the mayor, I called upon Mr. De Leon and asked him what he wanted me to do. He said, "I want you to get rid of Folwell." After the mayor had told him that he had promised the note to another party, John F. Folwell says—Q. By the Mayor? You are a fool, and you have no office and no money for getting some money shortly after my first election?

A. I recollect the mayor coming in and talking to Mr. Folwell. After the mayor went out, I recollect that he wanted all the papers to be taken away.
